Your profile (glorify your work)

I, Dr. Nidhi Dahiya is an Assistant Professor at the Maharaja Surajmal Institute of Technology, Janak Puri New Delhi. From last three years I have been teaching as a Guest Faculty at Campus Law Centre, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi.

I have done PH.D. from Faculty of Law, University of Delhi on the topic “Human rights of women, Honour Killings and the Law: National and International perspectives”. I completed LL.B. from the Campus Law Centre, University of Delhi. My LLM specialization is in Personal Laws in India from Jamia Milia Islamia, New Delhi. I was awarded with the Gold medal for top scorer in LL.M. I have done PG Diploma in Human Rights from Indian Institute of Human Rights, PG Diploma in Alternative Dispute Resolution from Indian Law Institute and summer course in International Law from ISIL.

I have over 5 years of teaching experience and was previously working with Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies. I have supervised around 5 dissertations at VIPS, Delhi. I have taught many Law subjects at undergraduate level. Women issues, Human Rights, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Legal Drafting and Gender Justice are my major areas of interest. I have various research papers in UGC Care and peer reviewed journals to my credit. I have participated in national and international conferences held in New Delhi.

I have associated with Human Rights Law Network and Empower people, the Ngos working for the human rights of women
